

VOL. 9. NO. 7.

MINERS LEFT LIABLE FOR OVER $600,000

St. Paul, Minn., May 10.—The judgment of $600,000 against the United Mine Workers of America, rendered by the Federal court at St. Paul, Minn., today, was the largest judgment in the history of the Federal court at St. Paul, Minn., and the largest judgment in the history of the Federal court at St. Paul, Minn., and the largest judgment in the history of the Federal court at St. Paul, Minn.

WOULD EXPLOIT CHILDREN

Harrisburg, Pa., May 10.—The Philadelphia Record today published a story that the United Mine Workers of America, an organization, is planning to exploit children in the coal mines of Pennsylvania.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WASHINGTON D. C. SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919.

AMERICAN TAX DODGERS FLOCK TO PORTO RICO

San Juan, Porto Rico, May 10.—American tax dodgers are flocking to Porto Rico in large numbers, according to a report from the Porto Rican government.

WORLD-WIDE BILL OF RIGHTS FOR LABOR

New York, May 10.—The Evening Post today published a special article on a proposed world-wide bill of rights for labor, which would guarantee the right of workers to organize and bargain collectively.

RECORD BUILDING BOOM ANTICIPATED

Washington, May 10.—The building industry is expected to experience a record building boom in 1919, according to a report from the United States Department of Commerce.

PRODUCED 20 MILLION POUNDS MEAT IN 1918

Washington, May 10.—The United States Department of Agriculture today announced that the United States produced 20 million pounds of meat in 1918.

SOLONS FORGET PROMISES

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The Sacramento Union today published a story that the California State Legislature has forgotten its promises to the people of California.

CHILD LABOR TAX LAW IS DECLARED ILLEGAL

Oregon, May 10.—The Oregon State Supreme Court today declared the child labor tax law unconstitutional and illegal.

WANT HIGHER SCALE

Schenectady, N. Y., May 10.—The Schenectady Union today published a story that the Schenectady Union is demanding a higher wage scale for its members.

ANNEX TO CORPORATIONS

Harrisburg, Pa., May 10.—The Harrisburg Union today published a story that the Harrisburg Union is demanding an annex to the Harrisburg Corporation.

STILL HAVE AUTOCRATS

Manitowish, Mich., May 10.—The Manitowish Union today published a story that the Manitowish Union still has autocrats in its ranks.

FORMED TRADES COUNCIL

Battle Creek, Mich., May 10.—The Battle Creek Union today published a story that the Battle Creek Union has formed a trades council.

ENFORCING 31 AN HOUR

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the Butte Union is enforcing a 31-hour work day.

MRS. LENNON IS DEAD

Honolulu, T. H., May 10.—The Honolulu Union today published a story that Mrs. Lennon is dead.

LOCKED OUT FOR PARADING

Reading, Pa., May 10.—The Reading Union today published a story that the Reading Union is locked out for parading.

SHIPYARD MEN TO STRIKE

Washington, May 10.—The Washington Union today published a story that the Washington Union is planning to strike the shipyard men.

BOTTLE BLOWERS STRIKE

Dunbar, W. Va., May 10.—The Dunbar Union today published a story that the Dunbar Union is planning to strike the bottle blowers.

NEW COUNCIL FORMED

San Diego, Cal., May 10.—The San Diego Union today published a story that the San Diego Union has formed a new council.

EIGHT HOURS IN CANAL ZONE

Panama, May 10.—The Panama Union today published a story that the Panama Union is working eight hours in the canal zone.

THIS IS AWFUL

Philadelphia, May 10.—The Philadelphia Union today published a story that this is awful.

MOLDERS ON STRIKE

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the Butte Union is on strike.

NEGOTIATIONS FAILED

Rock Island, Ill., May 10.—The Rock Island Union today published a story that the negotiations failed.

TEAR UP YOUR CARDS

Duluth, Minn., May 10.—The Duluth Union today published a story that the Duluth Union is tearing up its cards.

ELECTROTYPERS WIN

Chicago, May 10.—The Chicago Union today published a story that the electrotypers won.

CLERKS FORM UNION

Portland, Ore., May 10.—The Portland Union today published a story that the clerks have formed a union.

BREWERS JOIN RASE

Duluth, Minn., May 10.—The Duluth Union today published a story that the brewers have joined the Rase.

PASTE MAKERS STRIKE

San Francisco, May 10.—The San Francisco Union today published a story that the paste makers are on strike.

IRON WORKERS FORM UNION

Whitish, Pa., May 10.—The Whitish Union today published a story that the iron workers have formed a union.

JEWELRY CLERKS IN LINE

Portland, Ore., May 10.—The Portland Union today published a story that the jewelry clerks are in line.

SUCCESSFUL STRIKE

Indianapolis, May 10.—The Indianapolis Union today published a story that the strike was successful.

UNITED PRESS TIED UP

Los Angeles, Cal., May 10.—The Los Angeles Union today published a story that the United Press is tied up.

"TEAR UP YOUR CARDS"

Duluth, Minn., May 10.—The Duluth Union today published a story that the Duluth Union is tearing up its cards.

ELECTROTYPERS WIN

Chicago, May 10.—The Chicago Union today published a story that the electrotypers won.

CLERKS FORM UNION

Portland, Ore., May 10.—The Portland Union today published a story that the clerks have formed a union.

BREWERS JOIN RASE

Duluth, Minn., May 10.—The Duluth Union today published a story that the brewers have joined the Rase.

PASTE MAKERS STRIKE

San Francisco, May 10.—The San Francisco Union today published a story that the paste makers are on strike.

TEACHERS FORM UNION

Honolulu, T. H., May 10.—The Honolulu Union today published a story that the teachers have formed a union.

PLUMBERS GET NEW SCALE

Memphis, Tenn., May 10.—The Memphis Union today published a story that the plumbers have a new scale.

SHOE WORKERS GET RAISE

Cincinnati, May 10.—The Cincinnati Union today published a story that the shoe workers have a raise.

NEW UNION FORMED

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that a new union has been formed.

NEW UNION RETAIL CLERKS

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the new union retail clerks.

GRANTED EIGHT HOURS

Minneapolis, Minn., May 10.—The Minneapolis Union today published a story that the eight hours were granted.

DECEPTION THWARTED

Houston, Texas, May 10.—The Houston Union today published a story that the deception was thwarted.

FEWER ACCIDENTS

Harrisburg, Pa., May 10.—The Harrisburg Union today published a story that there were fewer accidents.

DENVER BAKERS WIN

Denver, May 10.—The Denver Union today published a story that the Denver bakers won.

INVITED TO JOIN CHAMBER

Battle Creek, Mich., May 10.—The Battle Creek Union today published a story that they were invited to join a chamber.

GRANTED 37-DAY WAGE

New York, May 10.—The New York Union today published a story that the 37-day wage was granted.

BIG 8-HOUR STRIKE

Toronto, May 10.—The Toronto Union today published a story that the big 8-hour strike.

ENCOURAGING RESULTS

Washington, May 10.—The Washington Union today published a story that the results were encouraging.

GET MORE PAY PER HOUR

Battle Creek, Mich., May 10.—The Battle Creek Union today published a story that they want more pay per hour.

PAPER MAKERS UNITE

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the paper makers have united.

HOD CARRIERS IN IT, TOO

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the hod carriers are in it, too.

WORKERS ON STRIKE

Butte, Mont., May 10.—The Butte Union today published a story that the workers are on strike.

GEORGE FAYORS 40 HOURS

London, May 10.—The London Union today published a story that George Fayors 40 hours.